

Descendants of The Old Man Ilgenfritz

First Generation

1. The Old Man Ilgenfritz was born in Germany. He died before 1571 in Germany and was buried before 1571 in Germany.

Taken from Eva Fritz work on the Ilgenfritz Family:

Werentz (Wornitz) (Woernitz), sometimes called Unter-Wornitz (Unter-Woernitz), postal code 8801. There is a Wornitz River and Wornitz is right at its source It is also close to the source of the Tauber River. Wornitz is about 25 km. west of Ansbach (15 miles), 15 km. south of Rothenburg ob der Tauber (9 miles) 16 km. northeast of Crailsheim (10 miles), and 25 km. north of Dinkelsbühl. (15 miles). This is a beautiful section of Germany, I am told, by those that have visited Germany. Wornitz is on the Romantische Strasse (Romantic Road). It is also quite close to the Autobahn between Heilbronn and Nurnberg, if that section of the superhighway has been completed. If you can't find the smaller places on your map, it is slightly north of a line between Stuttgart and Nurnberg, a little bit closer to Nurnberg, and of course is in West Germany.

During the Thirty Years War the Protestant town of Rothenburg was unable to resist Tilly's Imperial Army, which was determined to raze the town. Burgermeister Nusch offered Tilly a cup of the local Wine. Tilly offered to spare the town if someone would drink a sixpint tankard in one draft. Mayer Nusch did so and saved the town. Each year at Pentecost this is reenacted. There is the old Rathaus (city hall), part of which dates from the 14th century, the St. Jakob-Kirche (church) begun in the 14th century with a famous altar-piece by Riemenschneider, the city wall built in the 13th and 14th centuries, the old hospital, the Plonlein, a picturesque corner often seen on posters of Germany, and much more.

Morrieden is a small village near Wornitz. Local histories say, our Johann Georg Ilgenfritz, who came to the U. S. was born in Ansbach. This town is 15 miles next to Wornitz. Also, it will refer to their being from Middle Franconia. In 1500, when Maximilian I divided Germany into ten administrative units called Kreise, he used the term Franconia (Franken) to denote a Kreis which included the bishopric of Wurzburg, Bamberg and Eichstatt, the principalities of Bayreuth and Ansbach, certain imperial town, and some other small territories. After 1806, when the Holy Roman Empire ceased, the term Franconia fell into disuse. At the present time, it is represented by the Bavarian districts of Upper Franconia, Middle Franconia and Lower Franconia.

I trust this will give you a small insight into the area lived by our early ancestors from Germany.

I will send copies to Sharan and Merle.

From, Ilgenfritz Family Newsletter, Vol. 1 # 1 pg. 8: He was born in the town of Wornitz, which is located about 37 miles southwest of the city of Nurnberg and 15 miles southwest of the town of Ansbach. This section of what was formerly West Germany is now called Bavaria. In the 1700's it was called Middle Franconia.

During this time period in Germany there was a lot of religious persecution, wars and famine. One can only surmise that Andreas sent his son to America for a better life. Many German immigrants who came to America travelled along the Rhine river which runs into the Waal river which goes to the city of Rotterdam The "Nancy" headed to Plymouth from there and then landed in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. The ship carried 105 men, 25 boys and 107 women and girls. He settled in what was Dover Township, Pennsylvania and is now Conewago Township, Dover Township, was formed in 1749. The Township, is drained by the Great Conewago Creek in the north, and the Little Conewago Creek in the southeast. The earliest settlers in this area came in 1736.

Baptism sponsor was John Michael Honig, Capt. Court attorney.
Rotterdam arr America Oct 1737, looking for details, ship pictures,

The ship CHARMING NANCY, 115 tons, was built at Philadelphia and was registered there on 18 November 1736 to John Ste[a]dman (who was also the master), Alexander Andrew, and George Catanach, all of London.

[Pennsylvania Magazine of History and Biography, 23 (1899), 383, where the tonnage is incorrectly given as "15"]. The ship CHARMING NANCY, Charles Stedman, master, sailed from Rotterdam on 29 June 1737, arrived at Portsmouth 8 July 1737, sailed for Philadelphia on 17 July 1737, where she landed on 18 September; the passengers qualified on 8 October 1737 [Diary of Hans Jacob Kauffman [Kaufmann], 1737, <http://www.wvco.com/~dda/charmingnancydiary.php>; Marianne S. Wokeck, Trade in Strangers; The Beginnings of Mass Migration to North America (University Park, Pennsylvania: Pennsylvania State University Press, c1999), p. 241]. (Note that Wokeck, citing Pennsylvania Mennonite Heritage, vol. 2, p. 12, states that the 1737 account was written by Jacob Beiler, another passenger on the CHARMING NANCY; I have not researched this question.) This was the first passage to bring large numbers of Amish to Pennsylvania. Three lists of passengers on this passage of the CHARMING NANCY survive in the Pennsylvania State Archives in Harrisburg: 1) the so-called "captain's list"; 2) the signatures or marks of those male passengers aged 16 years and older who subscribed to the oath of allegiance, and 3) the signatures or marks of those male passengers aged 16 years and older who subscribed to the oath of abjuration. All three lists have been published in Ralph Beaver Strassburger, Pennsylvania German pioneers; a publication of the original lists of arrivals in the port of Philadelphia from 1727 to 1808, edited by William John Hinke, Pennsylvania German Society, Proceedings 42-44 (3 vols.; Norristown, Pennsylvania, Pennsylvania German Society, 1934), vol. 1, pp. 188-194, lists 49A-C, respectively; facsimilies of the lists of signatures are published in vol. 2, pp. 193-198, lists 49B-C. The most accurate online transcript of these lists is Gary T. Horlacher's PalProject website, <http://www.palproject.org/pa/1737cnan.htm>.

The CHARMING NANCY made one more passage from Rotterdam to Philadelphia carrying German immigrants, arriving in November 1738. No pictorial representation of the CHARMING NANCY is known to exist and her later history and ultimate fate are not known: while there are many references to vessels named CHARMING NANCY later in the 18th century the name is quite common, and without transfer-of-ownership records or other documentation it is impossible to determine which if any of these references concern the vessel of 1737. A North-American built vessel in service across the North Atlantic in the 18th century had a maximum estimated lifespan of about 20 years, so she almost certainly was not in service much past about 1756. Note that she is not identical to the sloop CHARMING NANCY referred to at

99. Hans Georg Ilgenfritz II (Hans George, Andreas, Jorg, Georg, Marx, The Old Man) was born 25 May 1728 in Wornitz, Ansbach, Middle Franconia, Germany and was christened in Lutheran Church. He died 11 Oct 1810 in near Quickels Church, Dover Township, York County, Pennsylvania and was buried 14 Oct 1810 in Prospect Hill Cemetery, (Moravian Section) York, Pennsylvania.

Owned 300 acre farm in Dover Township York, York Co., Pennsylvania from which he retired. Came to America 1737 with parents on Charming Nancy. Naturalized, Supreme Court, of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. On 21 Mar 1761 he took Sacrement. Naturalized 11 Apr 1761 along with John Feisser, Frantz Berot, John Fishell and Jacob Lanius by Sacrament since they were Moravians. He joined Lutheran Church in Dover, York Co., Pennsylvania 11 Jun 1757. He was named Constable for Dover Township, York Co., Pennsylvania in 1753; Road supervisor in 1756 & 1758. He was taxed in the same Township, in 1762 (7 Shillings, 6 pence and seems to have been living in York, York Co., Pennsylvania. in 1763. Hanover, York Co., Pennsylvania He died intestate.

At the death of his father, in 1749, George inherited 100 acres & bought 200 more. He added to it until he owned much land, both in Manchester and Dover Townships - he also owned a mill, in Dover Township, where he lived. At his death, in 1810, he left a large estate (which the heirs fought over).

George probably saw some service in the Revolutionary War; on one muster roll is the name of George Fritz; and on another the name of George Ilgenfritz (Pa. Archives). George left no Will, but on Dec. 19, 1810, his estate came up in Orphan's Court (Intestate) Book K - Pages 176, 177 - York Co., Court records.

There was a 'Feud' going on among the Ilgenfritz families; it is thought to have been between the children of the 1st and 2nd wives of George (the 2nd), and they never associated in any way...the young people were forbidden to meet. Eleanora (Ellen) went to Baltimore, to visit her uncle, John Ilgenfritz, in 1836, and while there met her distant cousin, Jacob Ilgenfritz, Jr., who was also visiting...and the young folks fell in love. Her folks opposed the marriage, and his mother was furious (his father was not living - having died in 1828)...she forbid Jacob from seeing Ellen, and threatened what she would do if he did. So...they eloped to Philadelphia and were married. Jacob began hunting work, he was a printer, but his mother hounded him, and got him discharged from every position he got. He tried for work of any kind, but it was winter, and there was none...a baby was expected...and still he could find no work...he took cold...it developed into pneumonia, and he died (from lack of medical attention, and malnutrition). Ellen's folks, hearing of her plight, went to Philidelphia, and took her back to York with them...where her baby was born about three months later. Ann (Lau) Ilgenfritz refused to acknowledge the baby, and never helped Ellen and the baby in any way...it is thought that she had much property...the Laus were wealthy farmers of Manchester Township, York Co., and she had inherited much wealth.

Eleanora (Ellen) (Ilgenfritz) Gartman, lived in York, Pennsylvania, until 1905, when she went out to the state of Washington - with her daughter, Fanny Spangenberg - to live with her granddaughter, Eleanora (Nelly) and Frank Dice, on a large farm, near Prescott Washington (Walla Walla County)...where she died, Jan 19, 1911, at the ripe old age of 97 (lacking ten days) - she is buried in the Dice family plot, City Cemetery, Waitsburg, Washington...which is about five miles from the Dice home.

Ellen was about 5 ft. 3 in. tall, weight Abt. 120 lbs., light brown, wavy hair, medium blue eyes, fair skin. She had an active mind, with a keen sense of humor...a good memory, and loved to tell stories of 'the good old days'...she had a sunny disposition, a pleasing personality...was a noted cook, seamstress and housekeeper. George's Will probated 19 Dec 1810, Orphans Court York Co., Pennsylvania, intestate. He had become a member of the Lutheran Church when he married Anna Maria Dorr Schertel. Joined the Moravian Church 11 Jun 1757 and left it in 1770.

Warning by DoDo:

Warning: It is believed, by some early researchers, that Johannes George Ilgenfritz, b. 8 May 1750, after his wife<Margaret Mummert, died moved to Hampshire Co., VA and that he changed his birth date to 24 Oct. 1766, the spelling of his last name to Ellifrits, and married a second time to Keturah Clark. I can understand changing the year you were born, but also changing the day and month, I find very questionable. The early researchers said Johannes George Ilgenfritz is mentioned in his father's will as my son George living in VA. I have been unable to find the statement about VA. At this time, I have George Ilgenfritz/Ellifrits, born 24 Oct. 1766 under unconnected Ilgenfritz/Ellifrits families.

The following is the opinion of DoDo Swaney, a great Ilgenfritz reseacher:

In 1830, Permelia and children Solomon, Rebecca, Permelia, and Susannah are listed on the census in Tyler Co., WV. In 1843, Permelia and her children along with and James Goldsburg and his newly married wife Elizabeth (Gibbony) went to Hancock Co., IL. James and Elizabeth had two sons John b. ca 1844 and George Henry b. ca 1846 both born in Pilot Grove Twp., Hancock Co., IL Elizabeth died shortly, after the birth of George Henry, and is buried in the McKay Cem. After Permelia's daughter Rebecca died in 1854, Permelia and James Goldsburg/Goldsberry moved to Marshall Co., KS. Permelia's daughter Susannah and her husband John R. Harris, might have gone to Kansas first I strongly believe that James Goldsburg/Goldsberry is Permelia's son from a previous marriage.

There is some question whether Permelia Jarvis married George Ellifrits b. 1766 or another George Ellifrits.

They had the following children:

- + 158 F xvi. Susannah Ellifritz was born 6 Oct 1819 and died 28 Mar 1874.
- + 159 F xvii. Mariah Ellefritz was born 1820 and died 19 Nov 1882.
- + 160 F xviii. Permilia Ellifrits was born 18 Jul 1821 and died 4 May 1910.
- + 161 M xix. Solomon A. Ellefritz was born 23 Feb 1825 and died 29 Dec 1894.
- 162 F xx. Rebecca Ellifritz was born 16 Dec 1829 in Tyler County, West Virginia. She died 28 Oct 1854 in Carthage, Pilot Grove Township, Hancock County, Illinois and was buried in McKay Cemetery, Burnside, Hancock County, Pennsylvania.

Rebecca married James A. McCauley on 15 May 1849 in Illinois. James was born in Virginia.

114. Catherine Elizabeth Ilgenfritz (Hans Georg, Hans George, Andreas, Jorg, Georg, Marx, The Old Man) was born 8 Jan 1755 in Dover Township, York County, Pennsylvania and was christened 16 Feb 1755 in First Moravian Church, York, Pennsylvania (J.Lischy). She died 21 Dec 1842 in Southampton Township, Somerset County, Pennsylvania and was buried Dec 1842 in Poorbaugh Family Cemetery, Somerset County, Pennsylvania.

Elizabeth is mentioned in the intestate records for her father, as the wife of Philip Burbach. Her first husband was Jacob Blickensderfer b. 13 Feb 1752, d. 20 Jan 1778. They had 2 girls, Catharine Blickensderfer 4 Nov 1775 d.23 Oct 1765 and Elizabeth Blickensderfer b. 9 Jul 1777 d.21 Dec 1842.

Note: Family cemetery on meadow land on the former William Bauman farm, later the Peter Felker farm, and in 1885 the Leora Deist farm. Daniel and Catherine (Burbach) Bauman originally lived on the farm where the cemetery was started in 1832. They owned a vast estate straddling both Northampton and Larimer Townships. Two of their 13 children and numerous grandchildren are buried in the cemetery. Their children included the seven "bearded" Bauman Brothers, pictured in various historical publications.

Early Family History The following paragraphs outline some of the history of Philipp Burbach. These are presented by Sam Poorbaugh, Corresponding Secretary for the Family Association, in response to the many questions he has received inquiring about the early family history. PHILIPP BURBACH was born about 1749 in Bavaria Germany and died between 1812-1815 in Allegheny Twp. Somerset County, PA. He married CATHERINE ELIZABETH ILGENFRITZ November 16, 1779 in Royer's Reformed Church, near Brickerville, Lancaster County, PA. (More on Royer's Church) <Old_Zion_.htm> She was born January 4, 1755 in Dover Twp. York County, PA and died about 1842 in Southampton Twp. Somerset County, PA. Catherine was the daughter of JOHANN ILGENFRITZ and MARGARETHA MOHR. Philipp Burbach was one of fifty-two young men who responded to solicitations of the agents of the Penn's to come to the Province of Pennsylvania to assist in colonizing it and at the same time to share in the freedom and opportunities which this "New Land" of America offered. As soon as navigation opened on the Rhine River in the Spring of 1771 the group started their long arduous journey to America. The trip from Heilbronn to the Seaport of Rotterdam in Holland took 4 to 6 weeks due to the red tape at the 26 Custom Houses they had to pass through. <index.htm> <index.htm> <Early-Family-History.htm> <Early-Family-History.htm> Reaching Rotterdam and, after 5 or 6 more weeks of waiting, they secured passage on the English Brigantine "Recovery", Mr. Bull, Master. When favorable winds permitted they sailed down the North Sea through the Straits of Dover into the English Channel and put into the Port of Cowes on the North shore of the Isle of Wight just off the South Coast of the English mainland. After further delays for customs they obtained final clearance from the English authorities and when the most favorable winds prevailed they set sail in high hopes upon their long treacherous two to four months journey across the wide Atlantic Ocean. The Recovery docked at the Port of Philadelphia on October 31, 1771. Each immigrant was then required to sign an oath of allegiance to the English Crown as well as a solemn declaration of loyalty to the proprietors of the Province including strict abeyance of its laws, which PHILIPP signed in a legible German script. The group was "consigned" to Willing & Morris, a Philadelphia merchant concern, who assumed payment for passage and expenses on the part of any member of the group. They were then sent out to various sections of the Province where employment was secured for each according to his particular skill and training with provisions for repayment with interest of amounts due the Philadelphia merchants. PHILIPP was sent to the rich farming section around Lititz, a short distance North of Lancaster, and in all probability secured employment on a farm. After paying off his debt to Willing & Morris, PHILIPP married CATHERINE ELIZABETH (ILGENFRITZ) BLICKENSDETFER, on November 16, 1779 by Rev. John Christopher Gobrecht in Royer's Reformed Church and started a new life in his new homeland. Royer's Reformed Church is now Zion's Evangelical and Reformed Church, located on the edge of Brickerville, 5 miles north of Lititz, PA. The present church is opened for only one service a year at Christmas time and is being maintained as a historical shrine. The first church was organized there in 1747.

<index.htm> <index.htm> <Early-Family-History.htm> <Early-Family-History.htm> To help preserve his new found freedom Philipp fought in the Revolutionary War in 1781. He was a 4th Class Private of the 8th Company in the 3rd Battalion of Lancaster County Militia, Commanding Officer Captain John Smuller. The above entitles all of Philipp Burbach's blood descendents to join the Daughters or Sons of the American Revolution if they so desire. Reference Pennsylvania Archives, 5th Series, Vol. 7, P. 282, 284, 330 and also D.A.R. Patriot Index page 100. Philipp and Catherine decided to homestead in the west of the Province after the Revolutionary War. Sometime in 1788 or 1789 they arrived in Bedford County. Philipp chose a site on the very top of the Allegheny Mountains in Londonderry Township. Here he built their home on the south side of the brow of the mountain, out of sight from the road. Across part of their land flowed a creek, now called the Poorbaugh Run, and close by the house was a spring. With the growing population in the area, Somerset County was formed by dividing Bedford County in 1795. In 1805 the Township where the Burbach property was located was renamed to Allegheny and then to Northampton Township in 1851. <index.htm> <index.htm> <Early-Family-History.htm> <Early-Family-History.htm> On June 17th and 18th, 1789 Philipp had 592 acres surveyed and warranted. His land was richly forested and in all probability he felled his own trees and built their first log house. In twenty years time they had a good dwelling, house and barn, a young apple orchard and fifty to sixty acres of cleared land under good fence. View from Philipp's Gravesite of Part of Original Homestead Philipp was an educated man for those days and was probably from a family of the landed gentry from Bavaria Germany for only those families with means could educate their children. In 1796 Philipp employed a German school teacher to conduct school in his home. He invited his neighbors children to join his own children in classes and thus gained the distinction of establishing the first school in this section of the county. Philipp and his wife were of the German Reformed faith and started attending Reformed meetings soon after arriving in their new home. Meetings were held in various homes until John Mull, one of Philipp's sons-in-law, donated land to build a church and cemetery. The Mull Church was used until a new church was built one mile west of Mull. This church, which was just recently dismantled, was named the Mt. Lebanon Reformed Church and is still referenced as a landmark. This is a condensed version of the first chapter of the early family history of the Burbach-Poorbaugh-Purbaugh Family History published in 1976. The full detailed reference, The Burbach-Poorbaugh-Purbaugh Family in America 1771-1974, was compiled by Treva Calder, the family historian at that time. Over five hundred copies of this book are scattered throughout the United States with family members. One copy has been donated to each State Library and there is a copy in the Library of Congress. Catherine married (1) Jacob Blickensderfer, son of Christian Blickensderfer and Catharina Schurger, on 16 Nov 1774 in Brickerville, (Ephrata), Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. Jacob was born 13 Feb 1752 in Nieder-Saulheim, Hessen, Germany and was christened in a Lutheran Church. He died 20 Jan 1779 in Lititz, Warwick Township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania and was buried 22 Jan 1779 in Lititz, Warwick Township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania.

Jacob arrived in America 29 Sep 1753 on SNOW ROWLAND, Rotterdam to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He was in the Revolutionary War. He was confirmed in Christ's Lutheran Church, York, York Co., Pennsylvania on Whitsunday 1773 according to KB. Died of Camp Fever, while furnishing supplies to the hospital of Revolutionary soldiers at Lititz.

They had the following children:

- + 163 F i. Catharine Blickensderfer was born 4 Nov 1775 and died 23 Oct 1865.
- + 164 F ii. Elizabeth Blickensderfer was born 9 Jul 1777 and died 21 Dec 1842.

Catherine also married (2) Philipp Poorbaugh Burbach on 16 Nov 1779 in Royers, Reformed Church, Brickerville, Lancaster County Pennsylvania by Rev. John C. Cobrecht. Philipp was born about 1749 in Palatinate, Bavaria, Germany, of Ephrata, Pennsylvania. He died about 1812 in Glenco, Allegheny Township, , Somerset County, Pennsylvania and was buried about 1812 in Poorbaugh Family Cemetery, Somerset County, Pennsylvania.

Immigrated 31 Oct 1771 on the "Recovery" to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Will probated 11 Jul 1815 in Bedford Co., Pennsylvania. Was a Revolutionary War Veteran.

The following information is gleaned from the book The Burbach--Poorbaugh--Purbaugh Family in America, compiled by Treva M. Calder, a distant relative, for the purpose of informing my own children of their heritage through one grandparent.

Philipp Burbach of Bavaria, the upper Palatinate of Germany, was one of fifty--two young men who responded to solicitations of the agents of the Penns to come to the Province of Pennsylvania to assist in colonizing it and at the same time to share in the freedom and opportunities which this "New Land" of America offer. As soon as navigation opened on the Rhine River in the spring of 1771 the group started their long arduous journey to America. The trip from Heilbronn to the seaport of Rotterdam in Holland took 4 to 6 weeks due to the red tape at the 26 custom houses they had to pass through.

Reaching Rotterdam, and after 5 or 6 more weeks of waiting, they secured passage on the English brigantine "Recovery", Mr. Bull, Master. When favorable winds permitted, they sailed down the North Sea through the Straits of Dover into the English Channel and put into the Port of Cowes on the north shore of the Isle of Wright, just off the south coast of the English mainland. After further delays for customs, they obtained final clearance from the English authorities and when the most favorable winds prevailed they set sail in the high hopes upon their long treacherous two to four months journey across the wide Atlantic Ocean.

The Recovery docked at the port of Philadelphia on October 31, 1771. Each immigrant was then required to sign an oath of allegiance to the English Crown as well as a solemn declaration of loyalty to the proprietors of the province including strict obedience of its laws which Phillip signed in a legible German script.

The group was consigned to Willing and Morris, a Philadelphia merchant concern, who assumed payment for passage and expenses on the part of any member of the group. They were then sent out to various sections of the Province where employment was secured for each according to his particular skill and training with provisions for repayment with interest of amounts due the Philadelphia merchants. Philipp was sent to the rich farming section around Lititz, a short distance north of Lancaster, and in all probability secured employment on a farm.

After paying off his debt to Willing and Morris, Philipp was married to Catherine Elizabeth (maiden name Ilgenfrits Blickensderfer), an attractive widow, on November 16 1779, by Rev. John Christopher Gobrecht in Royers Reformed Church and started a new life in his new homeland.

To help preserve his new found freedom, Philipp fought in the Revolutionary War in 1781. Proof of his service is found in Pennsylvania archives, 5th series, vol. 7 p. 282, 284, 330. This proof entitles all of Philipp Burbach's blood descendants to join the Daughters or Sons of the American Revolution if they so desire.

Of interest is the fact that the record of Philipp's and Elizabeth's marriage, located in Royer's Church, Philipp spelled his name "Porbach". It appears that one of the requirements of the Penns was that German names must be Angalized, take on an English spelling. Though Philipp seemingly continued using the German spelling, many of his decedents have, and are using the English spelling.

After the war, both Philipp and Elizabeth's first husband, Jacob Blickensderfer, who was a war casualty, were members of the County Militia, and as such were not entitled to donation lands as were the soldiers of the Continental Line. Upon deciding to homestead in the west of the Province, the Burbachs in 1788 loaded their belongings on a wagon drawn by horses or oxen and started west with their six children. They more likely stopped in York County to stay with their father awhile for this might be some time in 1788 or 1789 they arrived in Bedford County and Philipp scouted around for a favorable piece of land to homestead. Like the true Bavarian mountaineer that he was he chose the very top of the Allegheny Mountains in Londonderry Township. Here he built their home on the south side of the brow of the mountain out of sight of the road and it still is today. (An accompanying map of Somerset County in Pennsylvania shows the area.) He chose well, for across part of their land flowed a creek, now called Poorbaugh Run, and close by the house was a spring. (Note the different spelling. One of Philipp's sons made this change.)

Many of the very first settlers gave up and let the land revert to the government. It was some of this land that formerly belonged to Philip Gundle that Philipp choose. On June 17 and 18, 1789, he had it surveyed and warranted as follows: to Henry, his oldest son, 165 acres. To Philipp, 427 acres. His lands were richly forested and in all probability he felled his own trees and built their first log home. In twenty years time they had a good dwelling house and barn, a good apple orchard and about fifty to sixty acres of cleared land under good fence.

They were sturdy pioneers for in those early days they had to go to Chambersburg for salt and flour, a distance of some seventy miles east as the crow flies, but many more for Philipp as he yodeled his way across the mountain ranges. As new settlers arrived and pushed further into the wilderness to establish their homes, the distance became too great to Bedford, the county seat, where they went to transact their legal affairs and to the Township Election House in Berlin where they took great pride in exercising what to many of them was a newly acquired freedom to vote and hold office. So Bedford Co., at that time comprising all the southwest section of the province with an area of 9000 square miles, was divided and on 4 17 1795, Somerset County was formed. Philipp found his homestead to be in the new county when on 3/1/1800, part of Londonderry Township, Bedford Co., was added to Somerset County. Later the township was divided to form Allegheny Township in 1805, then Northhampton Township in 1851 and each time they were in a new township.

Philipp was an educated man for those days and it is the compilers belief that he was of the Landed Gentry of Bavaria, for only those with money could afford to educate their children. Perhaps after his fathers death, being a younger son, he had to go out and make his own fortune and chose America the new land of opportunity. He was concerned about his children's education in this new land for in 1796 he employed a German school teacher, Charles Peterman, to conduct a school in his home for their education. He then invited his neighbors children to attend. Thus it gained the distinction of being the first school in that section of the county. The first record of a school building indicates the erection of one in 1816 on an adjoining farm.

Both Philipp and Elizabeth were of the German Reformed faith and soon started to attend Reformed Meetings in the neighborhood. If, when they came, there was no such meetings, then he was sure to have helped to start them and took his turn in having them. No data is available on Philipp's parentage, but Elizabeth's is as follows:

Elizabeth Burbach was the daughter of Johann George Ilgenfritz and Margaretha (Mohr) Ilgenfritz. Johann was born 5 25 1728, at Werenz, Ausbach, Middle Franconia, Germany, and died 10 11 1810 at York, Pennsylvania, at age 82. He married Margaretha Mohr in June 1748. His father was Hans Georg Ilgenfritz, born 1703 in Werenz, Germany, and died Oct. 1749 in Dover Township, York Co., Pennsylvania. His mother was Maria Appellonia Ilgenfritz, born and married in Germany.

Margaretha Mohr, Elizabeth's mother, was born 9 15 1731 at Bedkerbach, Palatinate, Germany and died 4 Jun 1769 in Dover Township, York Co., Pennsylvania. Married in June 1748. Although they were Lutheran, they joined the Moravian Church, York Pa. in 1757 but he severed his membership in 1770, one year after her death when he remarried.

Elizabeth Ilgenfritzs' first husband was Jacob Blickensderfer, Born 2 13 1752 in the Palatinate, Germany, probably while his parents were en route to America from Switzerland. He died 1/20/1778 from camp fever while furnishing supplies to the hospital for revolutionary soldiers at Lititz, where he was buried. Philipp died intestate. His estate was settled from July 1815 to some time in 1822. On July 11, 1815, Elizabeth the widow, released her right to be administrator of her husbands estate and requested George Fkickinger and Daniel Bowman, her son-in-law, do so. An inventory and appraisal of the personal property was made on July 15, 1815 by duly appointed appraisers. The report shows about 375 items with a total appraised value of $1865.11. The actual total sale was $1845.23.

Philip Purbaugh was the third son of Philipp Burbach. He was only an infant when the family moved from Lancaster Co., Pennsylvania. in late 1788 or early 1789, for he was born in Lancaster Co., and baptized in the home with the twins, Susannah and Daniel in Londonderry Township, Bedford Co., now Northampton Township, Somerset Co., Pa. He was confirmed in Null's German Reformed Church on Pentecost 1814. He was a farmer all his life living first in Allegheny Township, Somerset Co., where their daughter Catherine was baptized. To settle his estate after his death, his real-estate was bought by his son-in-law, Solomon Conn, for $239.00. As the family name changed from Burbach to Poorbaugh and Purbaugh, Philip was the only son who chose the spelling Purbaugh. In later generations members of other lines, as they moved away from Somerset Co., also chose that spelling.

Philip Purbaugh, born 7 18 1788 in Lancaster Co., Pa. and died 1 9 1853, is buried in Homestead burial ground. He married Elizabeth Bunnel in 1817. She was born 3 27 1795 and died 5 28 1870. She is buried in the Homestead burial ground.

Isabella Elizabeth Purbaugh married a man who was a farmer, carpenter, and stone mason and lived all her life in Londonderry Township, Bedford Co., Pa. Her husband's name was originally Kahn but was soon changed to the English Conn. After her father died, her husband bought his real estate in Northampton Township, For $239.00, evidently for investment.

Isabella, born in 1818 in Allegheny Township, married Solomon Conn (Kahn) who was born in 1812 in Pennsylvania.

Samuel Van Buren Conn, born 6/14/1864 in Londonderry Township, Bedford Co., Pa. died 2 23 1940 and was buried in Sandy Hill cemetery near New Salem, Penna. He married Lavinia Stair, the sister of his brother-in-law, Christian Stair, in 1885. Lavinia Stair was born in 1858, the daughter of Augustus and Marie Stair. She died 2 7 1927.

Rose Anna Conn was born 12 19 1899 at Cooks Mill, Pennsylvania. She married Max Albert Adams, the fourth child of Robert Franklin Adams, born 11 30 1861 died 1/5/1946 and Mary Grabedine Riedman, born 8 12 1874 died 4 26 1957. Max was a coal miner all of his life. The family lived at Uleida (Revere), Pit Gas, and Clarksville, Pennsylvania.

Max Edward Adams was born 3/10/1936 in Pit Gas, Penna. He graduated from Jefferson-Morgan High School in 1956 and joined the Air Force. While in the service, he was stationed in Japan for 17 months. He then was transferred to Lufkin , Texas where he married Patricia Ann Ramos, born 11 20 1941, on May 16,1960. Max Edward (Ed) has worked in the newsprint paper mill since August 1961. Ed and Patricia (Pat) belong to St. Patrick's Catholic Church in Lufkin, Texas. They reside in Huntington, Texas, near Lake Sam Rayburn, where they purchased a home in the woods in June 1983.

SALEM (STRAYER'S) UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST CEMETERY

Strayer's Cemetery, which was originally laid out on January 5, 1765, is located just west of Dover, in Dover Township, York County, Pennsylvania. The cemetery has several sections, and it can be difficult to know the name of each. The section referred to as Strayer's is located directly beside the church, the earliest stones dated in the 1770s. Across from the church, beside their parking lot, are also two other sections, Gerber (previously Lenhart) and Leibernecht. Gerber, with the first internment being on September 6, 1870, is beside the larger church parking lot. Leibernecht, established in May 1892, is located beside the Gerber section.

Notes for JOHN WELTY:

Family believed to have come from Upper Rhine, Bern, Switzerland. John possibly came from Germany and immigrated on Ship- Sarah, from Rotterdam, Capt. Francis Stanfell on Oct 13, 1764. The Welty's settled near Forrestville, Shenandoah Co., Virginia about 1787 and attended Pine Church, and then Solomon Church starting about 1793. In 1796, 292 acres of land on the Drains of Mill Creek in Shenandoah County were sold by John and Margaret Uttinger. This land was granted to John Welty in 1788 by Edmund Randolph, Gov. of Virginia. John Welty appears on the 1783 tax list for Greene Co., Tennessee with many other Revolutionary War Veterans, Known as the Knolincucky Settlers. however, the family probably moved to Greene County about 1801. Tax lists in 1809 show John with 150 acres of land on Meadow Creek, near Caney Branch, and he appears on several later lists. Welty's first appear on St. James Lutheran Church records in 1814, and were often mentioned afterwards. On Jan. 8, 1831 "at the age of 87" John Welty applied for a federal pension for service in the Revolutionary War (file S39882). " He enlisted for a term of 3 years on the fifth day of Nov. 1778 in the state of Maryland in the company commanded by Captain Meyers... in the line of the state of Md. on the Continental Establishment, and served until the 2nd day of Nov. 1781, when he was discharged from service at York Town in the state of Virginia". He served with the German Volunteers. He then describes how he is in extreme poverty due to an unfortunate land purchase and "his extreme age and bodily infirmity". An affidavit states that " the number of his family living with him, is four, his wife Mary (or Marge?) aged about 81 years, and quite helpless, Ruhamy his daughter aged about 22 years and her infant child aged about six or seven months. Ruhamy is the only one of the family who is able to support herself, and upon her exertions alone, the rest are dependent for a subsistence." he was granted a pension of $8 dollars a month. A letter in the record states that "Barbara Hauff in 1856 residing in Greene Co., Tennessee referred to John Welty as Deceased, and she as his daughter". He is listed on the pension roll for 1835 at age 90. John's tombstone reads "JOHN WELTY, PVT CAPT MEYERS CO, GERMAN REGT, REVOLUTIONARY WAR, 1744-1856". Listed on German Company Payroll cards: Mar, Apr, May & June 1779, July, Aug, Sept, Oct 1779, Nov, Dec 79, Jan, Feb, Mar, Apr & May 1800, Aug, Sept, Oct, Nov, Dec. 1780. There is a problem here. This is the way DoDo Swaney explains it:
The Christ Evangelical Lutheran Church of York, PA lists 2 Anna Maria Ilgenfritz, both the daughter of George & Anna Maria Ilgenfritz. One was born 31 Jan 1773 the other was born 28 Oct 1776 and baptized 1 Dec 1776. She is keeping the Anna (1773) as the daughter of Johann George Ilgenfritz and Maria (Anna Maria) Dorr and the Anna (1776) as the daughter of Johannes George Ilgenfritz and Margaret (Anna Maria) Mummert. Her reason the birth dates fit in better with their other siblings.

As to which one married Henry Michael she chooses Anna (1776) also because the ages are closer. I have done the same. We have the parents of one Henry Michael

In addition I have left the children in both families in the database with a father "Henry Michael" since they have no descendants that we know of. Other researchers can work on this.

Anna married Henry Michael.

Obituary

Anna Mary (Schwing) Ilgenfritz is listed in the 1850 Wooster, Wayne Co., Ohio census with Sarah (Ilgenfritz) Hemperly, her daughter and a 10 year old James Hake. I am unable to find the parents of an Eleanor Ilgenfritz who married 10 Nov. 1839 James Hoke in Wayne Co., Ohio. Could James Hake, listed in the 1850 Wooster, Ohio census be the son of James Hoke and Eleanor Ilgenfritz? This leads me to believe Eleanor Ilgenfritz is Anna Mary (Schwing) Ilgenfritz' daughter but I have found no proof.

There is a problem here. This is the way DoDo Swaney explains it:

The Christ Evangelical Lutheran Church of York, PA lists 2 Anna Maria Ilgenfritz, both the daughter of George & Anna Maria Ilgenfritz. One was born 31 Jan 1773 the other was born 28 Oct 1776 and baptized 1 Dec 1776. She is keeping the Anna (1773) as the daughter of Johann George Ilgenfritz and Maria (Anna Maria) Dorr and the Anna (1776) as the daughter of Johannes George Ilgenfritz and Margaret (Anna Maria) Mummert. Her reason the birth dates fit in better with their other siblings.

As to which one married Henry Michael she chooses Anna (1776) also because the ages are closer. I have done the same. We have the parents of one Henry Michael

In addition I have left the children in both families in the database with a father "Henry Michael" since they have no descendants that we know of. Other researchers can work on this.

Anna married Henry Michael, son of Wendell Michael and Margaret. Henry was born 3 Nov 1778 in York County, Pennsylvania and was christened 6 Dec 1778 in Christ Lutheran Church, York, Pennsylvania.

Jacob Louck, who had recently been released from a "Lunatic Asylum", mounted his horse and armed with a loaded rifle came into town at full speed. He stopped opposite the residence of Capt. George Hay and deliberately aimed at the Captain. As he fired, the horse wheeled around and the ball passed thru the window. He then left at full gallop. As soon as Capt. Hay ascertained that it was Louck, he followed him on horseback. About 2 miles from town he met Henry Ilgenfritz who proposed riding up a lane after Louck. The object was, if possible, to get the rifle from Louck. Henry rode up to Louck and addressing him pleasantly, proposed as they were riding in the same direction, that they ride together. Louck agreed, but after riding a short distance, Louck spurring his horse ahead of Henry, wheeled around in his saddle and fired at Henry. Henry lived about two hours.

History of York County, Pennsylvania. John Gibson, historical editor. Chicago: F. A. Battey Publishing Co., 1886.

Part II, Biographical Sketches, York Borough, Pg 16 DAVID EMMITT has for over half a century been identified with the business interests of York. He was born in York, January 27, 1819, and is a son of Jacob and Lydia (Ilgenfritz) Emmitt, of Irish and German descent. His father, who was a relative of Robert Emmitt, of Ireland, was one of the early men of York, and a soldier of the war of 1812, belonging to the "Independent Blues," a company of 200 men, of Baltimore. He was an active and respected citizen, and a resident of York until his death in 1865. The subject of this sketch received a good education, having the advantage of the schools of York and the York County Academy. He early learned the trade of carpenter, and followed that occupation from 1836 to 1849, when he embarked in the grocery business, on the corner of Beaver and Philadelphia Streets, at which he has since been successfully engaged. Mr. Emmitt is a charter member of the Mt. Zion Lodge, No. 74, I. O. O. F., and a man who has done much to develop the moral interests of his native town. He has been identified for more than thirty-five years with St. Paul's Lutheran Church, and over thirty years as a member of the church council. He has been an active member and a liberal giver for all projects of true moral worth. In 1847 he was married to Miss Mary E. Rauss, daughter of Luke and Mary L. (Beitzel) Rauss. She was born in York, July 22, 1822, and is a descendant of the families that have been long identified with the history of York County.

About 1846, Frederick worked at the Eagle Factory, a grist-saw mill, and carding factory. Frederick and Abner Robinson purchased the building but dismantled the old factory and built a huge three story brick building, with a tall smokestack at the rear. A large millpond was next to the building, from which the mill drew its power. Behind the Woolen Factory stood a big shed which served as a storage place for piles of wool. In 1868, Robinson retired from the mill. The Ellifritz family continued to operate the firm for many years. He was a woolen mill owner. On December 23, 1873, Dr. D. Lewis, a temperance lecturer delivered a speech which inspired the women of Hillsboro to suppress the liquor traffic in their town. That next morning they formed an organization in the Old Presbyterian Church. Mrs. Fred Ellifritz (Clarissa Shuffstall) and Mrs. Paul Harsha (Duanna Shrigley) were one of the original members. On 24 December 1873, they marched from the church to the drugstore, where they knelt upon the floor and offered their first prayer. The purpose of this crusade was to discontinue the manufacture, sale, and consumption of alcoholic beverages. At the time, there were four drugstores, thirteen saloons and four hotels which served alcohol. After about two weeks, there were only three establishments and a druggist who refused to sign a pledge, which said that they would stop selling liquor. One of the saloon-keepers who didn't want to sign the pledge, agreed to their demands on the condition that the women buy all of his stock and fixtures. This, they did, and the next night they gathered all of the wine, gin, whiskey, etc. and burned them in the public square. The Crusade rapidly spread throughout many Ohio Counties and eventually throughout the entire country. WROTE Indiana HER OWN BLOOD Young Woman, a Suicide, Left Note to Her Parents

York, Pa., May 7.--Because of impaired health, Miss Elsi Ilgenfritz, twenty-four years old, a pretty brunette, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ilgenfritz, a cigar manufacturer of the city; committed suicide to-day by asphyxiation. In her room was found a pathetic letter scrawled with the point of a pen dipped in her own blood. The blood with which she wrote had been drawn from beneath her finger nails and the writing was quite plain.

The letter read:

"My dearest Mother: Do not grieve for me. I cannot stand it any longer. You have been a good mother. Trust in God and pray for your daughter. I am so sorry I must do this, but no one knows what I have suffered. Mother dear, and papa, do not worry. I trust we will meet in a better world where there will be no sorrow. Love to you and my friends who have been good to me."

The young woman ended her life at the home of Attorney George W. Bacon, this city, where she was visiting. The discovery of the tragedy was not made until noon to-day. When her room was entered, the girl lay upon her bed dead. The room was thick from gas which poured out of three jets, and the windows were tightly closed. Miss Ilgenfritz suffered from nervousness and was visiting at the Bacon home in order to recuperate.

He died 12 Feb 1888 in New Middletown, Mahoning County, Ohio and was buried Feb 1888 in Zion Lutheran Churchyard, Springfield Township, Mahoning County, Ohio.

John grew up on his father's farm, and on 13 September 1836 he married Eliabeth Ilgenfritz, the daughter of John Ilgenfritz, a settler from Lancaster Co., Pennsylvania, who migrated to Springfield Township in 1808. The Ilgenfritz farm was not far from the Miller farm, and the two families were members of the same Lutheran congregation during the childhoods of John and Elizabeth.

He and his family lived on a farm which was located in the northeast corner of Section 11 of Springfield Township, just east of the village of New Middleton in Section 10. The proximity of the farm to New Middleton determined the location of family activities, making it easy to understand that even though this family were members and supporters of the Old Springfield Lutheran Church, when a disagreement about the manner of holding services and prayer meetings broke out, they were among those who helped organize one of the new congregations that resulted. The Zion Evangelical Lutheran Church was constructed on the southeast corner of Section 11, the same section in which John H. Miller had his farm. Fred Ilgenfritz and David Miller were a committee to build it on the new location about three miles north of the Old Springfield Lutheran Church.

In May of 1862 the same Frederick Ilgenfritz was suspended from Church privileges and in July, 1874, John Ilgenfritz, Mary Ilgenfritz and Ephriam Ilgenfritz were excommunicated from the church for "un-Christian activities". It is interesting to note that John H. Miller was the secretary pro tem of the Church Council which took the latter action against his wife's relatives. John & his sister Elizabeth Miller married brother and sister Elizabeth & Frederick Ilgenfritz.

The death of George Ilgenfritz occurred at 11:20 o'clock yesterday morning at the family residence 627 South Tenth street. A few minutes before his death he was seemingly in his usual health and his demise was quite sudden. He had suffered several strokes of paralysis and the last going to his hear, cut his life short almost without warning. Deceased was of German descent and was a son of David and Sally Ilgenfritz. He was born in York Co., Pennsylvania, on March 29, 1822. He received a common school education and then went to work on a farm following that occupation until 1850, when he left Pennsylvania, and came to Indiana. The trip was made in a wagon and required twenty-five days. The following year he purchased a farm in this county and continued to add to its acreage until he owned a tract of nearly 400 acres. Several years ago he left the farm and came to this city to enjoy the fruits of a well spent life. Short services will be conducted at the house Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock with regular services at Spring Grove church at 11 o'clock by Rev Morrison. Born out of wedlock, 10 months before mother (Elizabeth) married Jeramiah Hensley. (Elizabeth listed Jeramiah as his father in Greene Co. court proceedings.)

He married Elizabeth Hauff, his first wife, in Tennessee. They moved to Mississippi, where he farmed the land and raised eight children. He and his sons served in the armies of the South during the Civil War. After his first wife died, he married Lydia and started a second family. He moved to Arkansas, where he farmed the land that he received under the Homestead Act and raised seven more children. John was a devoted family man who endured much hardship in his life. He came into this world an illegitimate son. He experienced the death of his first wife and four of their children. He was still living when his mother died and one of the children from his second family died. He fought in nine battles and was wounded twice during the Civil War. At the battle of Antietam, he witnessed the bloodiest single day of fighting in American history. But, in spite of these hardships, he was a survivor who lived the American dream. He owned the land he lived on and farmed, and he was blessed with a wife twice, many children and many more grandchildren.

Cofounder of HIST (with Charles A. Browne), Smith studied with Friedrich Whler at Gttingen, receiving his Ph.D. in 1876. he began collecting books, portraits, letters and other ephemera which eventually became one of the finest collections of its kind in the world. Still preserved at the University of Pennsylvania as part of their rare book collection, it remains a significant resource in the history of chemistry. His historical writings numbering 32 articles, 15 brochures and seven books include Chemistry in America, Chemistry in Old Philadelphia, and biographies of Robert Hare and James Woodhouse. See H. S. She died 3 May 1904 in York, York County, Pennsylvania and was buried 11 May 1904 in Prospect Hill Cemetery, York, York County, Pennsylvania.

We have a problem, Dolores Swaney does not believe Emeline is mother of 2 in her household in 1880c. We need more information to prove yes or no. Emeline's older sister Mary is mar. to a Gerberich with a dau. Ida Frances.

The 1880 census lists Emma as single with two daughters, Mary E. Duckworth and Ida F. Gerbrich, and her brother George Ilgenfritz. Emeline's sister Mary Ann Ilgenfritz is married to Francis A. Gerbrich. If Ida F. is really Mary Ann and Francis A. Gerbrich's daughter she would have been born 23 years after they were married. The 1900 census lists George Ilgenfritz with sisters Emma and Ida. Mary Duckworth is married by now. This time Ida is listed as a sister instead of a daughter. Very confusing. The Cemetery Index to York Co., Pennsylvania says Emeline died 9 May 1904 and was buried 11 May 1904.

She had the following children:

Headline: Met Turns Down $100,000;
 'Artistic Integrity'

Upheld

Article: NEW YORK (AP) -The financially hard-pressed Metropolitan Opera has turned down a $100,000 bequest from an amateur composer on ground that its "artistic integrity" is not for sale.

The money was willed to the Met by McNair Ilgenfritz, wealthy Philadelphia real estate man who died in April, 1953, on condition it produce one of two operas he wrote-"Phedre" and "Le Passant."

The Met announced Thursday that its musical staff examined copies of Ilgenfritz' scores and found them not up to Met standards. Despite the annual operating deficit of $400,000, directors decided that "under the circumstances and as a matter of policy, the bequest should not be accepted."

By Sharan Hughs: Looking over some now. I found an error on 122, Henry Dietz. The Henry they have living with them is my uncle born to Charles and Sarann Miller Ilgenfritz. When my grandparents moved to the Pittsburgh area, he stayed behind with grandpa's parents. He was raised by them. My grandparents never had a hand in his raising. Some of the family thinks there is more to the story but we will never know because all is dead. Merle said it looked like his birth certificate was altered.

I think grandpa got another woman pregnant and grandma wouldn't raise him so my great grandparents did. That's what some think also. Later in years though, Uncle Harry visited grandma and grandpa, even after the death of grandpa, he still visited grandma. If this is true, I don't think he ever knew. Grandpa had a reputation of a hell raiser.... Harry was engaged to another woman but his grandmother wanted him to marry the house keeper and he did to please his grandmother.

He died 11 Aug 1921 and was buried in Oakwood Cemetery, Dixon, Lee County, Illinois.

After his mother died, Rudolph lived with his father until after 1850 when his father placed him with a family to be raised. The men of this family were miners and when they came in from the coal mines they set their coal picks down in the house and Rudolph picked one up and, being a little boy, it was too heavy and he dropped it injuring his right ankle. It became very bad but no doctor was called. It finally healed but every so often throughout the years it would open up until finally the bone decayed and in 1892 when he was 46 years old it became so bad that his right leg was amputated above the knee. This was done at home with no anesthetic with family members holding him down on the kitchen table. He was unconscious for three months and didn't work for a year. Then he made himself a pegleg from a piece of hickory and strapped it on. Being a truck gardener he used his pegleg to dig the holes he put the plants into. He also ran a popcorn wagon evenings to help out financially.

His children were born in Cambria Co., PA. The Family moved to Ft. Wayne, IN, in 1877 but in 1880 moved back building a two room and attic log house up in the mountains near Wilmore in Cambria Co. In 1886, they moved from there to York Co., NE. In 1888 a terrible blizzard came up while the two older boys were in school where they had to stay until the storm stopped at 2 A.M. when they walked home right over the wire fences as the snow was that deep. While this was happening the twins were home due to one being sick and they went around singing about 'the poor little orphans lost in the storm' which didn't comfort their mother who feared the boys had left school and got caught in the blizzard. In 1889, they moved to Holyoke, CO but moved because the hot winds burned up their crops. In 1890, they moved to Dixon, IL where they had many relatives and bought 2 1/2 acres west of town on the Rock Island Road and built a large eight room two story house where the children grew to adulthood. After the children were all married he sold the large home and bought a smaller one and a sandpit and sold sand which was much easier than truck gardening for a man with a pegleg.

He appeared on the census of 1850 at Southampton Twp., Somerset Co., PA; and 1900, 1910, and 1920 at Dixon Twp., Lee Co., IL
