Notes: Elmer finished four years of college (at Purdue University) in three years and maintained a B average while helping to support his family. He taught Mechanical Drawing and Woodworking first at Purdue University in Lafayette, Indiana and then at West Technical High School in Cleveland, Ohio. After he retired from West Technical High School he worked at Merriman Instrument Co., in Cleveland, Ohio. He didn't drink because he didn't want to be like his father who was an alcoholic. As a young boy, he had to go and pull his father out of the local saloons. He was a 32nd degree mason. He loved fishing and was a wonderful carpenter.

Elmer was an exceptionally kind and compassionate man. He also had an insight in how to help people. When his daughter, Eleanor, was eleven years old she fell out of a second story window on to a concrete pad, shattering all of the bones in both of her arms. The doctors wanted to amputate both of Eleanor's arms. They said she would never have any use of them again and that they would only atrophy. Her parents refused to allow them to perform the amputation. Elmer then began his develop his own physical therapy for Eleanor.

He made her carry suitcases, first empty and then began to add some weight. He placed bars above every doorway in the house and made her try to reach for them everytime she went through a doorway. If she didn't try, he would spank her with tears in his eyes. For he knew it was her only chance to regain the use of her arms. It is only because of his ingenuity, compassion, and love that Eleanor regained almost complete use of her arms. She went on to become a wonderful watercolor artist and an X-Ray technician. When a neighbors baby was born quite weak and not expected to live, Elmer lined a box with cotton added a light bulb and made an incubator for the baby. He is attributed to saving the baby's life. ss 282-24-5160

BIOGRAPHY

Eleanor King, American dancer, teacher, choreographer, lecturer and writer, was born in 1906 in Middletown, Pennsylvania, the daughter of George Ilgenfritz King and Emma Kate Campbell King. She was one of the pioneers in modern dance, making her debut with the original Humphrey-Weidman Company in 1928 and eventually performing as soloist with that group.

In the early 1930's, King began to choreograph with the "Little Group," a cooperative venture with Jos Limon, Ernestine Stodelle and Letitia Ide. In 1937 she choreographed the large scale work, Icaro, with Jack Cole as Icarus.

King taught and choreographed in Seattle, Washington, from the early 1940's until 1951, when she became a faculty member at the University of Arkansas. She developed her Theatre of the Imagination there, and taught and choreographed for twenty years. When she retired, she moved to Santa Fe, New Mexico, where she was an active member of the dance community.

To pursue her growing interest, King received two Fulbrights (1967, 1976) and a Vogelstein Foundation grant (1976) for study of traditional dance and drama in Japan, Korea, Bali, Sri Lanka and Burma.

In 1978, King's book , Transformations: The Humphrey-Weidman Era, was published. She completed the manuscript for another book, The Way of Japanese Dance, and was working on a third, Transformations II: To The West. King moved to the Actor's Home in Englewood, New Jersey, where she died on February 27, 1991.

Listed parents as Marcus and Margaret Lanius at her marriage which really were her grandparents.

So you see how the GETZ family got into the LANIUS family. My maternal grandmother was born without the benefit of her parents being married. Lucky for me because this is my favorite branch of my Genealogy. Her father was apparently at the Baptism Ceremony but there is no record of a marriage. She was raised by her Grand Parents and signed all important documents that they were her parents. Her mother later married a HORSESTICK. I remember as a child when my Grand Father took me to visit Grandma Horstick (my grandmothers mother).

Of course I never knew my grandmother(she died in 1911). I was born in 1923. (Jlg, Jr.)

NEWSPAPER OBITUARY

On May 10 1911, at 4:30 am, Fannie Getz, wife of David F. Getz, age 37 years 9 months, and 21 days died. Internment, private at Prospect Hill Cemetery, York, York Co., Pennsylvania.

Fannie married David Fahs Getz, son of John Lewis Getz Jr. and Sarah Rebecca Fahs, on 6 Sep 1894 in First Moravian Church, York, York County, Pennsylvania. David was born 7 Oct 1872 in York, York County, Pennsylvania and was christened 15 Jun 1873 in First Moravian Church, York, York County, Pennsylvania. He died 1 Oct 1943 in 521 S. 1905 City Directory, David F. Getz (JL Getz & Son) residence 469 W. King St.

1908 City Directory, lists David as running JL Getz & Son Bottling Works with res. at 18 Elmwood Blvd. Sarah his mother also lived there.

1910 census age 42 living on Elmwood Blvd., Spring Garden Township, York, York Co., Pennsylvania at that time his occupation was a manufacturer of catsup. His mother was living with him and his family.

In 1894 he applied for a marriage license, York Co., Pennsylvania book N page 51. I knew my grandfather well, he was great. I spent many summers with him. I can not find a picture of him. Later my brother Don supplied a picture. I remember helping at the sheriff's sale of his fine large home in Elmwood which he lost during the depression.

After the soft drink business he was a salesman of candy (Peanut Butter Balls, his invention) made by hand by Mrs. Pilkey, He also sold carbonated gas cylinders. I recall with great pleasure going on daily trips to the country stores in his model "T" Ford driven by his one legged friend, Andy. They told me my first "shady" jokes and may have started me telling exaggerated tales.

He served on the Board of Trustees of First Moravian Church, York, Pennsylvania and was Sunday School Superintendant (succeeded by son John) and later as a Sunday School teacher. I was in his class and he took us all frequently across the street to a soda fountain for a "Lime and Lithia".

He died at home 4:am after a 6 month illness. His death certificate states Chronic Myocarditis, Arteriosclerosis and Cholecystitis. It was signed by Gibson Smith, M.D. later a well respected colleague of mine when I interned and practiced in York. Apparently he never charged David for care because when as a child he was often taken fishing by my grandfather. Funeral pallbearers were Thomas Mills, Jr., nephew of widow Helen, me John Jr., Phillip A. Small, and Hoke Fink, church friend and a solo choir member. At the Getz plot in Prospect Hill Cem., York, York Co., Pennsylvania in the grave area of Fannie & David is a marker engraved "Our Baby", was this an unnamed infant of theirs ? I now believe it was since the 1900 & 1910 census says one child dead. Helen Mishler Getz is not buried on that plot. I believe she is buried in Carlisle, Pennsylvania.

1920 census lived on Elmwood Blvd. Spring Garden Township, York, York Co., Pennsylvania 13 Dist 13, ED. 97 Sheet # 13A owned home, occupation Bottling. Joseph Lehmayer lived next door whose son Joseph was dad's boyhood and life-time friend.

I have a copy of the application for marriage license, He gives the occupation as proprietor. The application is dated 24 Aug 1894. The following is from The York Daily, Wed. 5 Sep 1894:

HYMENEAL GETZ- Louisiana NIUS

The Parsonage of First Moravian Church, on North Duke St. York, York Co., Pennsylvania was the scene of a quiet wedding this morning. The groom was Mr. David F. Getz son of John L. Getz, and the bride Miss Fannie Lanis, of South Pine St. The nuptial knot was tied by Rev. S. J. Blum, pastor of the church in the parsonage. The happy couple left on the 11:20 am. train for a bridal trip.

Another memory I have is when at Christmas I received as a gift, an electric shaver. Grandpa was confined to bed with perhaps his last illness, so I went to his apartment on Duke St, and shaved him in bed. The newly invented electric shaver was not able to cleanly shave the verticle cleft in his chin. I have that same cleft and find it difficult to shave that area with any type of razor. He died having lived, 70-11-24. Rev. Henkleman who instructed and Confirmed me was in charge of the funeral. (JLG,Jr)

OBITUARY

David Fahs Getz, 521 South Duke St. confectionery salesman and former proprietor of the Whistle Bottling Works, died at his home after a six month illness. He was nearly 71 years old. The deceased is survived by his widow, Mrs. Helen L. Getz, at home; a son John L. Getz, 254 W. Jackson St; a sister, Mrs. Sarah Ashbrook, of this city, and four grandchildren. He was a member of the First Moravian Church, York, York Co., Pennsylvania. The body was removed to the Strack and Strine Funeral home 1205 E. Market St. York, York Co., Pennsylvania.

I have an Indenture dtd. 9 Oct 1897 from Amos F. Little & wife to David F. Getz for assets of Amos. Apparently a sale forced by lack of funds of Amos.

In birth registration, York Co., Pennsylvania of son John he is occupation is listed as manufacturing. Attending Physician for the delivery was Dr. E. W. Meisenhelter.

I have an Indenture dtd. 11 Aug 1908 from the York Co., Pennsylvania Court House of Margaret A. Small, Exe. to David F. Getz. He bought the land where he built his home on Elmwood Blvd. that I remember so well. It is now (1996) an apt. building. It was $3000.00 and in the deed a covenant requiring a single house of not less than $4000.00. It measured 133x228x57x212x60ft.

The following is in answer to a letter from Dave Goulden who is writing a book about the Elmwood homes.

Dear Dave,

I'm getting ready to come to York around June 24 for 5 days. Do you have email? John L. Getz and Son was a private bottling company, Whistle was a regional Company that apparently bought the private Company I would guess about 1929. I don't know how long it stayed in York. David's son Joseph apparently worked for Whistle in another area of Pennsylvania after graduating from Stauton Military Academy. He had run away from home and disappeared.

David was probably only involved for a few years. I remember him as a candy salesman and carbonated gas cylinder salesman from about 1932. I suspect the Depression was a cause for the business failures of my grandfather, but there is also evidence of his not being as good an entrepreneur as his father John. He also lost his 1st. wife and remarried to a more expensive life style, His wife Helen Mischler was blamed for the runaway of his son Joseph, but there were other reasons for his leaving home.

I remember the Elmwood home being sold at Sherrif Sale. I earned a dollar working that day. He kept enough furniture to furnish a 2nd. floor apartment rental in Elmwood. Apparently he was not able to afford that more than a few years, when he moved to a second floor apt on Duke St., where he died when I was about 15. He had no hobbies that I knew of, and was active as superintendent of the Sunday School for 30+ years, my father followed him for many years at First Moravian. I do not know who bought the home, next I knew it was turned into apartments.

I have one nice portrait of David and will give you a copy if we meet in York.

The Pilkey candy adventure as I remember she was an employee and made Peanut Butter Balls by hand. I always thought his were the first and without a cup. I watched her for hours. Granpa told me she was a rare person for such a job because she had proper hand temperature for the job, it was a gift. Yes she was a Pilkey that lived to the rear of the Elmwood Home.

I have the agreement to buy the lot from a family at the other end of Elmwood. It is in the Archives at Stony Brook I have some pictures after the change to apartments.

I spent several summers in that home and still dream of every room. I could draw it to scale I believe. "Nuff" for now,

John

I am a Professor Emeritus of Civil Engineering at the University of Florida, with research interest in the area of steel structures. I have been painting as a hobby for over thirty years. My primary medium is watercolor, but I also work with pencil, charcoal, pen and ink, and pastel. My art education includes nothing formal, but lots of instruction in workshops, both in the U.S. and abroad.

I have also revived a 300-year old art form, now lost, called fore-edge painting, that is, painting on the edge of a book in a manner such that the painting is invisible until the pages are bent. There are no teachers for this, and no books, so I have taught myself by trying and failing. See my article in the Summer 2002 issue of Watercolor Magic.

I believe that watercolor is the perfect medium for an engineer. Executing a painting or designing and building a structure both require careful planning, good timing and rapid execution.

Description: This is a photo of my Uncle Herbert Lee Ellilfritt (Young). He wanted to enlist in the Navy but they wouldn't take him because he was Color Blind. He enlisted in the Army Air Corps as a radio operator for 1 year. Then the Merchant Marines requested that he be transfered to their branch as there was a critical shortage of radio officers. He served aboard the liberty ship SS Thomas Paine for the remainder of the war, traveling from Galveston Texas to Europe, back through the Panama Canal to Manila.

Herbert was the only son of my Grandfather Harry Bertram Elliffritt. When Harry died of Botulism poisoning in 1921, Grandma remarried and her husband adopted Herb and changed his name to Young. I believe this was very dissapointing to his grandparents as Herb was the only one left to carry on the Elliffritt name. Herb lives in Denver Coloand turned 90 years old on Oct. 2, 2005 in Oct. 2002. Date Taken: 1943

Eric Anderson is President and CEO of Space Adventures. They are the company that sends tourists to space. Last October they sent Greg Olson into space , launched from Russia. Eric Anderson is a descendant of the Elliffritt family. He is my nephew, (son of my brother Carl Anderson. . This is a recent photo of Eric and my uncle Herbert Elliffritt. I only had the pleasure of meeting Wally once. I was photographing markers at Greenwood Cemetery and saw a gentleman I recognized from pictures on another 'MyFamily' site. It was Wally. Wally was the type of man who could only be a stranger til he shook your hand and said 'Hello'. From that point on he made you feel as if you had been friends for years. I never met Wally again but we kept in touch via e-mail and snail-mail. He sent me so much stuff, (photos, histories, jokes.....), I had to start a folder just for 'Wally's Stuff'. Again, I only talked to Wally face to face for about an hour but because of his personality I feel as if I've lost a life-long friend. I have posted his obituary below. The obit in the paper includes a picture but for some reason it will not showup here. If anyone wants a copy, give me your e-mail address and I will forward it to you. ELLIFRITT, Wallace E., (Wally) Comdr., age 82, of Clayton, Ohio, passed away Sunday, November 13, 2005 at the V.A. hospital in Dayton. He was born August 16, 1923, in Greenwood, West Virginia. He is survived by his loving wife, Claire, daughters: Sheree Webber of Springboro; Tanya Ellifritt of Dayton, and sister, Dorothy Ginn of West Milton. Wally graduated from Northridge High School in 1941, attended Purdue University for 2 years prior to U.S. Army service in W.W. II. After the war he attended and graduated from the University of Dayton and then served in the Korean War where he received the Purple Heart. the Bronze Star and other medals. He also served and retired from the Naval Reserve. He was also retired from the WPAFB Foreign Tech Division. Memorial services will be held on Saturday, December 3, 2005 at 4:30 P.M. at the Turner Road Church of Christ at 450 Turner Road, Dayton Published in the Dayton Daily News on 11/27/2005.

GREENWOOD (WV) - ITS UPS AND DOWNS Greenwood was never a town of any size, although it was one of the major towns in Doddridge County. It was always a small town and still retains that character. There is, however, more to this story. Greenwood has steadily declined over the years to its present very small size and what some would term an æAppalachian character. I personally do not like that characterization. The decline probably accelerated in the 1940™s during the war when young men were drawn from the area, and with the end of the war chose to settle elsewhere after experiencing the differences they encountered in places they had been to. This same effect was probably almost universal in all small communities. It further declined with the advent of the construction of new Route 50, a fill for which covered up about forty percent of old Greenwood. That fill most probably covered a number of the homes of some of our ancestors. Let me take you back a bit and show you a bit of what happened in Greenwood more contemporary with our Ancestors. I am not a historian, just your Loremaster, and what I write is my view of the matter from what I know of the past. In its beginnings Greenwood was basically a small subsistence farming community. Due to the ruggedness of the area it was not well suited for commercial farming. A limited amount of cattle raising may have had a bit of commercial interest. It was into this farming environment that our ancestors chose to place themselves. I imagine that our ancestors never expected this would change a great deal. Such a change, however, was coming over the hill. In Doddridge County you can™t go much else but æover a hill . In fact it is easy to believe there is a lot more æup than ædown in Doddridge County. A definite harbinger of change was the coming of the B & O Railroad to Greenwood in 1855, as it was in most other places when the railroad arrived. The improved transportation had a pronounced impact on what was to come. Remember that in the late 1700™s, early 1800™s the principal mode of transportation was the horse, and to a lesser extent, in the area of heavy hauling, the oxen. In the earlier times the mere acquisition of a wagon or sledge was an event, and those who acquired them was considered very fortunate. With the passage of time, as with all things, these items became more common and widespread. The advent of the railroads, The B & O and others, and there were several, in Ritchie and Doddridge Counties opened up transportation to a much wider area and facilitated it in the immediate areas. The next big item to have an impact was the automobile. This occurred in the early 1920™s, and was not widespread for several years. In the early 1920™s there were many people who had never seen an automobile or ridden in one. This, of course, probably changed relatively rapidly in the mid to late 1920™s when automobiles became more plentiful and their use more widespread. This was accelerated and definitely affected by the change which was æcoming over the hill . Is he never going to get to the point? Yes, I am. The change I am speaking of was the discovery of oil in WV in the late 1800™s. Fortunately for the Ancestors Doddridge and Ritchie Counties were directly in the path of this change. Oil in plentiful quantities was found in both of these counties. Greenwood was fortunate enough to be located right on a good oil field. I expect you can see what is coming but you may not be aware of how it may have affected your Ancestors. I hope to give you a look at this. At this point I will start to write from personal knowledge based on some very good information I have from my family. Gum Run the location of the Ellifritt Family Homestead and the nearby Dotson, Waldo, Richards, and other farms proved to be over a good pool of oil. I have all the leases ever let on the V. Olive Ellifritt Farm, my grandmother™s home. I believe it is typical of the other nearby farms. The first lease dates from about 1920. By 1922 serious oil production was underway on the V. Olive Ellifritt Farm. This development continued until there was six producing oil wells located on the farm. Three gas wells were also found, but since at that time gas was not sold in the area these wells were plugged and never produced. Serious production continued until about the time of the Stock Market crash in 1929 and the ensuing depression which reached its peak in 1933. It ceased, with the exception of two æmaintenance wells about 1938. After that only enough oil was produced, a couple hundred barrels a year, to maintain the leases. For a time the oil changed the character of Greenwood somewhat. There was now some serious money in town. Large modern, for the time, homes appeared. Employment in the oil fields was plentiful. More automobiles were acquired in the mid to late 1920™s, the peak period for production. Greenwood™s prospects were much brighter. Fortunately, I believe, the basic character of Greenwood, i.e. a small town, did not change. Aside from the oil industry no serious industry settled in the area. This due, most probably, to the rugged nature of the area which does not lend itself to industrial development. For example: Oil money permitted my father and mother to both have their own automobiles in the mid 1920[™]s. Two car families were not really common until many years later. My father had a seven passenger Hudson Touring Car. At that time a Hudson was in the same class as the Cadillac, Lincoln and other luxury cars of the period. My mother had a more modest Model æT Ford. My Dad[™]s Hudson had its own garage, one of the few garages in Greenwood at the time. Another example: My uncle, James Edgar Ellifritt, had a large modern home built on Long Run Road just a short distance from the school. This house had indoor plumbing. Not all that common at that time. The house was built with oil money. The house is still there today and it is very easy to see that it was one of the better houses in the town. I wish I could say that prosperity continued in Greenwood. Unfortunately the much improved state of affairs in Greenwood was to be cut short and it reverted to being primarily a farming community. This was because of the Stock Market crash of 1929 and the ensuing depression which caused the decline and virtual cessation of oil production in the area. Greenwood suffered severely from the depression as did the whole country. In the continuing æGreenwood Saga I will give you a very graphic picture of just how great an impact the oil industry had on our favorite small town and its surrounds. I can promise you it will be much more than you can imagine at this time. And it will be factual not just my opinion. Take care! God Bless!!! Loremaster Wally

When Eleanor was eleven years old, she fell out of a second story window on to a concrete pad. She shattered all of the bones in both of her arms. The doctors wanted to amputate both of Eleanor's arms. They said she would never have any use of them again and that they would only atrophy. Her parents refused to allow them to perform the amputation. Her father, Elmer, developed his own physical therapy for Eleanor. He made her carry suitcases, first empty and then began to add some weight. He placed bars above every doorway in the house and made her try to reach for them everytime she went through a doorway. If she didn't try, he would spank her with tears in his eyes, for he knew it was her only chance to regain the use of her arms. It is only because of his ingenuity, compassion and love that Eleanor regained almost complete use of her arms. Today she is a wonderful watercolor artist and an X-Ray technician. Eleanor changed her middle name from Rose to Gretchen.

Frances and Al Hodgson, proprietors of the Willow Creek Variety Store, are enjoying the company of Frances' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Elifritz, of Cement, Okla., and Frances' grandmother, Mrs. Lena Elifritz, of Patoka, Ill., who will celebrate her 83rd birthday on January 11. The Hodgson's, who are now 10 and 14 years old, thus make the fourth generation in the reunion. Their great-grandmother is as spry as they are. With a tag around her neck, she boarded the bus in Vandalia, Ill., and rode to Oklahoma City, where her son and his wife Christine picked her up. Frances' father works for the Mobile Oil Company in Cement, Okla. They then boarded a jet plane and traveled out to California. Frances' grandma showed no signs of weariness after the long trip. The remarkable lady, whose beautiful head of hair is not even graying yet, has a tremendous sense of humor, loves Willow Creek, is looking forward to spending Thanksgiving here and astonished writer by reciting the Lord's Prayer in perfect German (her forefathers were German immigrants).

It first started out as Willow Creek Varsity Store and then later was named Hodgson™s of Willow Creek. More often than not it was referred to as Hodgson™s or Hodgson™s Department Store.

You may have seen my father on TV. I think most people who watch TV have. My father is the local Bigfoot expert by default. The movie of Bigfoot that was taken in the 60™s by Rodger Patterson was filmed about 35 to 45 miles from Willow Creek. My father knew Rodger. They came to our house the very next day after filming the very controversial footage. Over the years dad had pictures of Bigfoot tracks that he had take plasterparis casts of. I don™t know exactly how he happened to get involved in this but over the years he has been interviewed by many magazines and several TV news organizations. He™s been included in stories done by the Discovery Channel and other similar type programs. My father™s email address fits this very well:

Chance of war hits close to home

Students face personal implications of Iraq invasion

By Betsy Foster

Collegian Reporter

Fighting the temptation to procrastinate is hard enough when professors announce projects that are not due until the end of the semester. It only becomes infinitely harder to be diligent when a phone call could mean leaving Hillsdale within 24 hours. This potential is what freshman psychology major Chris Ilgenfritz is facing. Ilgenfritz, 21, is a lance corporal for the Marine Corps Reserves, and has been put on notice to be prepared to leave with 24-hours notice. Ilgenfritz, who was raised in East Lansing, said he is excited about the possibility of serving his country and using his training. He trusts President George W. Bush's judgments and will willingly serve if called.

As a Marine, I support my commander-in-chief, George W. Bush, in any decision he makes, Ilgenfritz said. I believe he is acting in the best interest of the country. I'll go and carry it out as he sees fit.

Ilgenfritz is anxious though, he said, and so is his family. It is war, with the possibility of having to kill or be killed, Ilgenfritz said.

Obviously my mom's not real excited about her baby going to war.

Nevertheless, Ilgenfritz said his parents have supported his decision to serve in the military.

They are real proud of me and supportive of me as a member of the armed services, he said.

Ilgenfritz is not the only student on campus who is being affected by the potential war with Iraq. Many others have relatives who would be involved if war broke out.

It was there I have the memory of my mother hearing of her father's death and our preparations for the drive to Glenville, Pennsylvania. We got married at 10:00am in main Sanctuary. Head Minister. Yesterday we visited mothers grave and each put a pink rose on the headstone. This morning before the service we each put a pink rose on the Church Memorial garden where Dave's ashes are scattered.

The only couple left of our old crowd were our witnesses. They took us out to lunch at the Lobster Shanty here at Vero. They had a bottle of champagne, a centerpiece and candles.

They also had made by a computer friend the attachment we sent that had their pictures on it also.

Lois lost both little heel caps on the way to church, so we all came home and got new shoes. We had time to waste anyway since the restaurant didn't open till 11:30. We are happy but still tired with all the moving stuff to put away.

8/May/1995

Dear Dick,

Thanks for the letter, it sure is nice to have our families come home.

Re: your questions about the "pop" bottle. Enclosed is a chart of Rachael's direct ancestors in the GETZ and BARBEHENN lines. Of course the information would be the same for Skip and Craig, but Jenny is the longest line at this point. I have a few of those bottles also from Dad and Flea Markets. Those bottles are vintage 1890 and found only around York Co., The carbonated beverage was put in and the lead cork was pulled up to seal in the fizz. You can see the shelf life was not long. Later the porcelain/rubber stopper was used and then the cap was crimped on as we did selling root beer. I'm not sure when or why the company ceased. I do know that when I was about 8 years old I helped loading soft drinks in cases on to trucks. Our grandfather David was then the distributor for Whistle a popular line of the day. I have one of those bottles also. So probably the Getz Co., was bought out by Whistle and David stayed on. Apparently this was around the time of death of John L. Getz's death in 1898. It seems that was the peak of the financial graph of the Getz's in York Co., I have rumors that our family either owned or managed the Valencia in York about that time, never have looked in to it any more.

As you know David built that great house in Elmwood. It was the ultimate at that time. Either the times or the business ability of our grandfather caused a gradual slide downward. One of my memories was the Sheriff Sale of that grand house. I was given a dollar for my work carrying stuff to the auctioneer. It was very depressing. David went into a second floor apartment in Elmwood with his basic furniture etc. Subsequent moves were into lesser areas and he died living on Duke St. a nice area at the time but now a very depressed area. He had continued to be a salesman of carbonated gas to soda fountains as well as candy to country stores. This should bring you to the era of your memory. I sure would like a narrative by you to add or correct my memories. Recently we visited Don and Lou when they were on the west coast of Florida vacationing. We discussed some things as our memories of the cooking in our home. It's amazing how we eat and do things the same as our ancestors.

Dick was one of the hosts of the 2001 reunion, his guest Beverly (an old girlfriend), helped make the reunion a success.

Dick married Carolyn Frances Martin "Marty", daughter of Charles Martin and Valerie Valantine, on 18 Sep 1960 in Old St. Mary's San Francisco, California. The marriage ended in divorce. Marty was born 10 Mar 1937 in Livermore, Alameda County, California.

<javascript:this.print();> <javascript:this.print();> After almost 40 years in five states, Fr. William Ilgenfritz comes home.

The Rev. William Ilgenfritz™s road back to southwestern Pennsylvania has had a lot of twists and turns since his baptism at St. Stephen™s in McKeesport in 1946. The one-time U.S. Steel employee originally left the area to work with troubled teenagers in Kansas. Before coming back in November of 2004 to serve as the rector of St. Mary™s in Charleroi, Fr. Ilgenfritz had been ordained, ministered in five states, become the national vice president of Forward in Faith North America (A body for Episcopalians known as Anglo-Catholics who put a heavy emphasis on the theology and tradition of Christianity before the protestant reformation) and seen God™s faithfulness to him and to the Christians he served time and time again. Now, Fr. Ilgenfritz is just glad to be back. æI™m really a Pittsburgh boy, he said. As a national leader of Anglo-Catholic Episcopalians, as well as a parish priest, Fr. Ilgenfritz often finds himself wearing several hats. It™s a situation he™s used to. Ordained a deacon in 1981, he worked as a bi-vocational clergyman for a number of years. On one hand, he supported two rural parishes in northwestern Pennsylvania. On the other, he worked with abandoned, abused and neglected children as the executive director of the Children™s Aid Society. It soon became clear to Fr. Ilgenfritz that the two parishes he was serving needed the full-time support of a priest, so he talked to his bishop about being ordained to the priesthood. According to Ilgenfritz, Bishop Donald Davis of what is now the Diocese of Northwestern Pennsylvania told him æIf you believe God has called you to the priesthood, there aren™t any shortcuts. I want you to quit your job and go back to seminary. After much prayer with his wife, Lois, Fr. Ilgenfritz enrolled at Trinity Episcopal School for Ministry in Ambridge in time for the fall

1983 semester. He spent the next three years commuting every week 150 miles each way between his home and his family and parishes in the Clearfield area. According to Fr. Ilgenfritz, his time at Trinity broadened him. While he remained Anglo-Catholic in his theology and worship, "I now had something I didn't have before, which was an understanding of God's Word written," he said. After being ordained a priest in 1986, Fr. Ilgenfritz spent the next two decades serving throughout the United States. That included working as a curate at Fox Chapel Episcopal Church in 1988-89, serving as the chaplain for St. Jude's Ranch For Children in Nevada, ministry at St. John's Episcopal Church in Brownwood, Texas, work as an inner city parish priest in Baltimore (where Fr. Ilgenfritz also served as chaplain to the Baltimore City Police Department) and then to north of Philadelphia, where he served as rector of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church in Whitehall until taking the position at St. Mary's.

Things They Don't (But Should) Teach in Seminary When Fr. Ilgenfritz first felt a call to ordained ministry, he thought he was signing up for something out of the 1940's Bing Crosby movie Bells of St. Mary's. "I had the Fr. O'Malley mentality" that as a priest you just walk around in a cassock and pray with people! laughed Fr. Ilgenfritz. The reality, he said, has caused him to seriously consider offering a supplemental course for new priests. Curriculum on his list of skills that must be taught but don't make it into seminary classrooms include "restarting a boiler" and "fixing a toilet," and a host of other less than glamorous but necessary duties that "happen because we're part of a family. As a priest, you've got to take that cassock off, roll up your sleeves and get to work!" said Fr. Ilgenfritz.

For almost all of those years, Fr. Ilgenfritz has been active in the organizations and groups that became Forward in Faith North America (FiFNA) in 1999. In his current role as vice-president, Fr. Ilgenfritz helps lead the organization and represents it through writing and speaking. He also serves as the dean of the Anglican Communion Network's FiFNA convocation of churches. While Fr. Ilgenfritz, with all members of FiFNA, is unable to support the ordination of women as priests or bishops he made clear that the disagreement didn't mean he wasn't willing to work with the Anglican Communion Network, which does support the ordination of women. "We have differences regarding the ordination of women, but both organizations find in Christ Jesus what is true and real and what is worth living out," he explained. As Fr. Ilgenfritz settles into his new work among the people of St. Mary's, he said it feels good to be back in the Episcopal Diocese of Pittsburgh. St. Mary's, he said, has welcomed him with open arms and given him plenty to do. During any given week, he said, the parish holds two Bible studies, feeds about 40-50 poor or homeless Charleroi residents at "Mom's Place," a ministry staffed by parish volunteers, and keeps a regular schedule of services. This fall, he's planning a series of inquirers classes for the church's expanding congregation. In everything, Fr. Ilgenfritz says he focuses first and foremost on loving the people God has given him charge over. "A parish won't grow if people don't believe their rector loves them. And if you don't love your people, you shouldn't be doing this anyway," he said. Created by pfrank Last modified 2005-06-09 14:14
